Fourth Sunday of Easter

As we have noted, the readings for many Easter liturgies bring us the meditations of John's gospel upon what the life of the Word made flesh means to the world. Sayings of Jesus beginning with 'I AM' abound in this gospel – clearly intimating the Saviour's claim to the divine name itself (cf. Exodus 3:14). They come readily to mind: 'I AM the bread of life' (6:35); 'I AM the gate' (10:9); 'I AM in the Father' (10:38); 'I AM the way; I AM truth and life. No one can come to the Father except through me' (14:6); 'I AM the true vine' (15:1); 'I want those you have given me to be with me where I AM' (17:24); 'I AM he ... I have told you that I AM HE' (18:5, 8); and the momentous, 'Before Abraham ever was, I AM' (8:58).

The gospel reading of today's liturgy, 'I AM the good shepherd', heard against this background, takes us deep into the mystery of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ – and, as we shall see, it tells us of how God's initiative in the Paschal Mystery was conceived in the depths of the Trinitarian Life itself.

The Good Shepherd theme has had a great impact on Christian consciousness. One of the earliest and most repeated motifs of Christian art is the youthful shepherd carrying the lost sheep home on his shoulders. The image it suggests is so telling that it has featured prominently in the Church's preaching in every age. As so often happens with the best things in life, we tend to take this theme for granted. Today's text helps us to find a fresh appreciation of its implications. In it Jesus explains these implications by reference to the Paschal Mystery.

He says that he is the 'good' shepherd – in contrast to the unfaithful shepherds who have failed God's people, thinking only of their own interests - because, as he three times repeats, he 'lays down his life' for them. He lays it down, he explains, 'in order to take it up again'. In his Resurrection, he will be a source of life for them. And in this drama of his death and resurrection, he is carrying out and making clear to the human family what his Father wills for them – an enterprise so dear to the Father that he looks upon the Son's obedience with a renewed love.

It is a plan that works to bring all those who believe into unity. There are other 'folds', or pens, than the one the community that gave us John's gospel finds itself in. Through his Paschal Mystery, the Good Shepherd will lead them in the forming of a single 'flock', overcoming all the apparently insurmountable barriers that divide the human family.

The other readings illustrate the blessings that belong to those who 'know' the Good Shepherd and 'listen to his voice'. We recall the faith and courage of Peter, as he works the Christian Church's first miracle in the power of the divine name – 'in the name of Jesus'. And we are told that we can become 'God's children', through 'the love that the Father lavishes on us', with a future which when it is fully revealed will give us a share in the intimate life of God.

Do I spend time in private prayer in an attempt to get to know or recognize the voice of the divine Shepherd?

From Today's Reading

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12. In this passage, Peter is explaining how he could heal a cripple in such a miraculous way. It was not by his own power, but by the power he was given from God through Jesus Christ. Peter then quotes from Psalm 118, the same Psalm as in today's Responsorial (below). He talks about Jesus being the cornerstone or keystone necessary to bring a foundation or arch together. But this is the One the Jews rejected, and their faith and teaching cannot stand without Him.

Responsorial Psalm 118:1. 8-29. By now, this Psalm should be familiar to all because it is used so much during the Easter Season. It continually praises God for giving us so great a gift as His only Son, Our Lord, who steps in to rescue us from a spiritual wandering where there is no return without the divine Shepherd; but the Jews rejected this divine Shepherd and lost their way.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-2. Here, John the Evangelist is telling us that God looks upon every man, woman and child as His own children, and what Father would not love His own children or would deny them the most important part of their life, life itself? In this passage, "life" is taken to mean eternal life; and when we reach that stage, we will be like the glorified Jesus after His Resurrection. Wow! What a gift! Credit: stclareroseville.org

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN BITS: April 21, 2024 - 4th Sunday of Easter

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice." - John 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Many times, Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

At Emmaus Mental Health Ministries we believe in the strength and comfort that can come from peers walking with and supporting peers.

Our spiritual peer support groups bring together individuals with lived experience of mental health challenges in the family.

Spiritual peer support focuses on shared prayer, learning building resiliency, walking together, moving forward towards a healthier life for ourselves and those whom we care for, and discovering Jesus Christ walking with us in the midst of it all.

Who needs you to hold their hand today? Who do you need to hold yours?

1 in 4 families experience mental health challenges. If you're looking for support, Emmaus Family Support is here to help. Join our community of caring individuals
